ORDER:

Sri P.Sankaranarayana has been appointed as Junior Accountant on compassionate grounds on 17-05-1999, with a condition to acquire the qualification of intermediate and a pass in Type writing higher grade examination in English within period of two years. At that point of time he had degree qualification, but did not acquire the Typewriting qualification as required under rules. Therefore, he was allowed a grace period of two more years to acquire the qualification. As the period of four years was completed on 16-05-2003, the DD, Ananthapur, issued notice vide proceedings No.A1/1535/2001, dtd.21-05-2003, in terms of instructions contained in G.O.Ms.No.969, dtd.27-10-1995, calling for his willingness for appointment in a lower post. As the individual did not submit any representation he was terminated from service, vide the DD, DT, Ananthapur Rc.No.A1/4550/2000, dtd.29-5-2003.

2. Aggrieved by the orders, the individual approached APAT in OA.No.3675/2003 and obtained interim order to continue him in the post of Junior Accountant, till appropriate orders are passed by the Government. But the individual could not be continued in service as he was involved in a criminal case and suppressed the fact at the time of his appointment and as such, he was terminated from service vide D.D., Dist. Treasury, Anantapur vide his Procs.Rc.No.A1/4550/2000, dt.29-5-2003. Subsequently, the criminal case 353/99 filed in Hindupur Session's court was ended in acquittal of Sri P.Sankararayana. He preferred an appeal to the Govt., for his reinstatement into service.

3. Government after careful examination of his Representation, ordered for reinstatement of Sri P. Sankara Narayana, J.A. vide G.O. Ms. No. 652, Finance (Admn.I.Vig.) Dept., dt. 21-9-2004 and the individual was reinstated into service and reported for duty w.e.f.05.11.2004.

4. As the matter stands them, the Hon'ble APAT pronounced judgment dated.22.11.2006 vide reference 1st read above wherein it is held that

On the analogy of the above order of the Tribunal, if the applicant has already acquired the qualification, his request has to be considered in accordance with the orders of this Tribunal passed in O.A.No.3660/2004 dated.24-2-2005. The applicant, is therefore, directed to file a representation along with the relevant certificates within 3 weeks in token of having acquired requisite qualifications and the respondents shall verify and if the applicant has already acquired the qualifications in 2003, the respondents are directed to pass the appropriate orders within one month of receipt of the representation thereafter keeping in view the orders passed by the Tribunal in identical case in O.A.No.3660/2004 dated.24-2-2004. Till such time, the final orders are passed, the applicant shall be continued in the post of Junior Assistant. The O.A., is disposed of accordingly. VMA is closed.

5. In view of the orders of Hon'ble APAT dt.22.11.2006 passed in OA.No.3675/2003, it is decided to condone the delay of 3 months 8 days caused in acquiring the Typewriting English Higher Grade qualification by Sri P. Shankaranarayana, Jr. Accountant, Sub-Treasury, Penukonda, Ananthapur District and to regularize his services from the date of his appointment in the category of Junior Accountant.

6. Government after careful examination of the matter and taking a lenient and sympathetic view, hereby condone the delay of 3 months 8 days beyond the prescribed period in acquiring the Typewriting Qualification Higher Grade in English by Sri P. Shankaranarayana, Junior Accountant, Sub-Treasury, Penukonda, Ananthapur District, in relaxation of Rule 12 r/w Rule 31 of A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules and order for regularization of his services in the category of Junior Accountant from the date of appointment i.e., 17.05.1999 as a special case. This case is to be treated as a special case in view of APAT orders should not be quoted as precedent in future

7. The DTA, AP, Hyderabad is requested to take further action in the matter accordingly.
